

Richard Vallee, Kim Arsenault
VEMCO
20 Angus Morton Drive
Bedford, Nova Scotia
Canada B4B 0L9
Phone: +1-902-450-1700
Fax: +1-902-450-1704

Dear Richard and Kim,

Dalhousie University is leading a global research initiative known as the Ocean Tracking Network (OTN), designed to expand knowledge and understanding of the oceans. VEMCO Instrument metadata provided by way of this agreement will be stored in the OTN database at Dalhousie University and thereby integrated with metadata and data being collected via the OTN infrastructure.

I, Branden Hillier, representing The Confederacy of Mainland Mi'kmaq and

Names and Signatures of associates

_____/_____
_____/_____
_____/_____
_____/_____
_____/_____

hereby authorize you (Innovasea/VEMCO) to provide the Ocean Tracking Network at Dalhousie University with electronic versions of transmitter and receiver metadata for instruments purchased by my organization for:

any and all purchases

specific purchases: _____, _____, _____, _____ (list sales order numbers).

purchases for the period: _____ to _____ (yyyy-mm-dd).

Yours truly,

Branden Hillier Branden Hillier

Signature 2023-12-11
yyyy-mm-dd